

Loretta Holt Wins 2007 NAWBO Women of Distinction Award

SCCC President Honored and Thrilled

Las Vegas, NV - March 23, 2007: The Sin City Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce that President Loretta Holt was chosen by the National Association of Women Business Owners Southern Nevada (NAWBO) as the winner of a 2007 Women of Distinction Award in the Retail & Business Services category. The event attend by over 800 of the most prominent business women and men in Nevada was held at the beautiful Luxor Casino Hotel on the Las Vegas Strip.

"I am so excited, you have no idea. This is awesome, I am so thrilled to get this award not just for me, but for the Sin City Chamber of Commerce. We have worked so hard for 2 1/2 years to bring a level of credibility to our organization and by getting this award from NAWBO, it really sets us up there. I'd like to thank Brenda Stout and Becky Takeda, they have been so good to us" commented Loretta Holt, President, upon receiving her award.

Loretta helped found the Sin City Chamber of Commerce in 2004 with a goal of providing Mainstream, Adult Entertainment and Gay and Lesbian Businesses an organization that welcomed all with dignity, equality and respect. Her role as President of the Sin City Chamber of Commerce expands with each year, as she has over seen the growth of this 2 1/2 year old chamber to near 500 members. Monthly events, philanthropic endeavors or just listening to the needs of a member, Loretta has distinguished the Sin City Chamber of Commerce from day one and is a proud recipient of NAWBO's 2007 Women of Distinction Award for Retail & Business Services.
